

Which objectives pursues the association Empreintes ?

The association Empreintes wishes to offer the possibility to the young people of the street to form in three training centers, in the domains of the construction, the bakery and the hairstyle.

The association Empreintes also wishes to welcome within an educational center for girls in order to extract them from the street and avoid condemning them to the prostitution.

These institutions would respond to needs identified for which no response of this nature have been made.

How ?

- By welcoming and by protecting youth exposed to multiple risks (wandering, precariousness, family and social isolation, prostitution ...)
- By dispensing them a technical education then by proposing them works of collective interest having a recognized social and economic value, but unprofitable.
